

Uncovering Hidden Gems:

A Professional Writing Community Saturday Series

Interested in finding ways to recognize and build upon the strengths of your young writers? Be a part of a community of writing teachers as we seek out new ideas that foster a love of writing in our students. Partner with us as we explore and discuss best practices and new ideas in current writing research. Oh and we'll do some writing, too, because we believe the best teachers of writing are the ones brave enough to pick up the pencil themselves. Join us. You'll be glad you did and so will your young writers.

Presenters: Dale McMahon & Alicia McCauley – Teachers in the Enterprise Elementary School District & Teacher Consultants for the Northern California Writing Project

Cost: $100 Checks/Purchase Orders should be made out to CSUC Research Foundation. NCWP Teacher-Consultants are $75. The cost includes a book and registration fee for the NCWP Writing Symposium on 4/2 at Shasta College.

Registration Deadline: 1/14/11

Dates & Location: 2/5, 2/26, 3/12, 3/26. All sessions are from 9am-11am and will be held in the Boulder Creek computer lab located at 505 Springer Dr., Redding. Participants are expected to attend all sessions. 1 unit from CSU Chico can be purchased for participants who attend all 4 Saturday sessions, the writing symposium and complete 1 additional hour of study.
