

YOU ARE INVITED TO JOIN US FOR OUR
MAY WRITING MARATHON
IN DOWNTOWN CHICO ~ MAY 21 FROM 5:00- 7:00 P.M. !

HERE'S WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW:

A writing marathon is a chance to have fun writing with other people. Everyone is welcome, even if the only writing you ever do is make a shopping list! During a marathon, writers roam downtown in small groups of friends or colleagues. It's a great chance to meet new people. Groups move from place to place, pausing to write in 10 to 20 minute sessions, then sharing their efforts. It's all about seeing the world as a writer and giving oneself the chance to do this. The atmosphere is friendly and fun. We'll start off as a large group for an initial orientation, break off into smaller groups and end up together at a pizza parlor to share and talk about it over no-host food and drink.

Join us!

- Friday, May 21, 2010
- 5:00 - 7:00 pm
- Begin in front of Laxson Auditorium on the CSU, Chico campus
- Bring your preferred writing materials: pen and journal, laptop, etc.
- Dress casually & wear comfortable shoes
- Everyone is welcome — bring a friend!
- For more information, contact the NCWP: 898-5322; ncwp@csuchico.edu